About Us

In Romania at the end of 2018, there were around 4200 refugees settled in the country.

Timisoara Refugee Art Festival (TRAF) is a one of a kind art festival, with and about refugees, born in 2017 with the aim to build bridges between the refugees and the host community in Romania.

Trough theater, films, music, painting, workshops the festival gave the participating public the opportunity to express their support and solidarity towards the people who are leave home in search of safety.

The third edition of Timisoara Refugee Art Festival took place from 15th to 20th June in Timisoara, close to the International Refugee Day – 20th June and brought music, art and literature exhibitions, film screenings, community workshops, theater plays.
